- Identify timely topics of statewide interest and Oklahoma state government issues.
- Schedule and coordinate high-level guests, including state dignitaries, public officials, and community leaders.
- Write scripts, interview questions, and promotional materials for broadcast.
- Utilize best practices to share and promote ONR content across social media and the OETA website to maximize digital audience engagement on a weekly basis.
- Work closely with producers, photojournalists, graphic artists, and news management to execute daily news content.
- Participate in editorial meetings and contribute innovative story ideas for both broadcast and digital streams.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's degree in Journalism.
- Two to five years of journalistic experience preferred.
- Strong writing, interviewing, and editorial decision-making skills; knowledge of digital journalism and social media best practices.
- Ability to work effectively under deadline pressure, make difficult decisions, and remain open to last-minute changes.

- Professional demeanor with a demonstrated ability to build relationships with public officials and represent OETA positively within the community.
- Deep interest in Oklahoma state government and issues of statewide significance.
- Commitment to continuing professional development and public media standards.

COMPENSATION

Salary $ 42,000 - $ 60,000 per year. A generous benefit package including health, leave, retirement, and more is included.
